

The advertising decals, logos, driver name and starting numbers as specified by the Series Organiser, must be affixed to all competing vehicles during the free practice, qualifying sessions and races of the Series. The size, type, quantity and positioning are determined and announced in the "Sticker Regulations 2019". The sticker regulations are agreed on with the KNAF. The "Sticker Regulation 2019" are part of these Regulations. Any breach of these Regulations may result in the participant concerned being disqualified from classification. All advertising surfaces that are not occupied as specified in the Sticker Regulations are available for the entrants' own advertising labels. The clearance between such advertising and the mandatory labels and starting number shall be a minimum of 30 mm. Retained for the entire season. The registered entrants will be informed about their starting numbers before the first race. The drivers' names, starting numbers and national identification markings must be fixed on all competition vehicles throughout the entire event. The size, type, quantity and positioning of the identifications shall be determined by the Series Organiser and notification is given in the "Sticker Regulations 2019". The team (entrant) is responsible for ensuring that the stickers on the entered vehicles comply with the applicable legal regulations. All mandatory stickers are provided by the PCCB, including driver names. Only this version of the mandatory stickers are allowed, copies of the mandatory stickers will be refused. It is forbidden to cut or to modify the dimensions of the received mandatory stickers. For example the start number background can't be partly placed on the door, partly on the wing and cut in two. It's allowed to modify the dimensions of the window banner to avoid an overlay of the A-pillar and roof. All cars must be equipped with the mandatory license plate.

Exclusivity Rule

Advertising of team partners that compete to partners of Porsche AG, Porsche Carrera Cup and/ or cooperation partners shall be prohibited. In regards to the exclusivity of the partners of Porsche AG following rules apply. The exclusivity rule refers to the industry sector or to the product range of a manufacturer.

- Mobil 1 is the exclusive partner of the Porsche Carrera Cups worldwide for lubricants, thus prohibiting teams to communicate or advertise for companies or products that are competitors of Mobil 1 lubricants.
- For the area of fuels, teams are allowed to communicate or advertise for other companies under the following conditions and on request of Porsche AG:
 - The product brand "fuel" has to be clearly distinguishable from the company brand, e.g. "V-Power" or "Ultimate".
 - A maximum of one team with 3 race cars may communicate or advertise for one fuel brand. The date of the contract signing is pivotal.
- Michelin is the exclusive partner of the Porsche Carrera Cups worldwide. Therefore it is forbidden to teams to communicate or advertise for companies or products that are competitors of Michelin.

There is no exception for partners of exclusivity. For questions or additional information, please contact the Porsche Carrera Cup Benelux organisation.
